

for his personal use.

S/A McGinniss asked the Stephensons why they didn't call the police when they realized they had been taken. Again they advised they didn't call the police because they were scared they would get in trouble, because Lennie and Pamela Stephenson had a feeling the car was stolen. Agent McGinniss asked Lennie Stephenson how he explained the vehicle to Michael Scudero and Lennie advised that he just told Scudero that somebody gave the vehicle to him, that it could not be titled.

The Stephensons identified Chris Piersall as a white male, approximately 35 yoa, 5'10", blue eyes, blonde hair, weighs about 160 lbs., hair just over his ears. Piersall was a nice dresser; wearing a coat and tie and a very large diamond ring. He was clean shaven and right handed.

S/A McGinnis asked the Stephensons if they would submit to a polygraph only about the purchase of the vehicle from a white male they identified as Chris Piersall. After a brief conference with their attorney, Clayton Sinclair, Sinclair advised McGinniss that they would submit to a state administered polygraph.
